

Marie Kirkwood
In Charge of Publicity

"Flower and Garden Photography, a Cleveland Museum of Art Members' Course, given in cooperation with The Garden Center of Greater Cleveland on the Liberty E. Holden Fund for Outdoor Art, Begins Wednesday, May 14 at 10.00 a.m. with first meeting at Art Museum.

William E. Ward, Museum instructor and assistant in East Indian Art, will be in charge. The photographic work he has done in his travel, in both this country and the orient has attracted national attention. The course will have five Wednesday morning meetings.

After the first session at the Museum, the photographers will meet in gardens in and around Cleveland, including those of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Baker, 18401 North Park Blvd. Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Burton, Foxboro Road, Gates Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Morris, 2568 Derbyshire Road.